Assignment 2 (OPP)   Compiled by: Sir Mansab Ali

1-Write a class Array that contain an array of integer its store five values. It also contain the following member functions defined outside the class:

- The Fill ( ) function is used to fill the array with values from the user
- The Display () function is used to display the values of array.
- The Max () function shows the maximum value in the array
- The Min Function shows the minimum value in the array

2-Write a class that contain two float data members which are initialized to 100.5 when an object is created it has a member function AVG that display the average of data members.

3-Write a class Student that has marks and grade as data Member. A constructor with two parameters initialize data members with the given values and member function show () display the values of data members .Create two objects and display the value

4-Write a class TV that contain the attributes Brand Name, Model and Retail price. Write a method to display all attributes and method to change the attributes. Also write a constructor to initialize all the attributes